

39 Paternoster Row
London E.C.
Nov 9. 1875.

Dear Sir

We duly received your letter of Oct 19 relative to Dr Goldzich's work "The Myths of the Hebrews". We have much pleasure in informing you that we are willing to undertake the translation of this work, but we cannot give the author more than £20 for the right of translation.

We shall be happy to pay him that sum on receipt of the last sheet of the work.

We shall be obliged by your informing us whether this offer is accepted, as, of course, we cannot conclude arrangements with the translator until we have the sanction of the author.

We propose to place the translation in the hands of Mr Russell Martinson the author of the Preface to the translation of Ewald's History of Israel published by us.

M. Vambery
Pesth.

Yours faithfully
Longmans & Co